

International Max Planck Research School (IMPRS) for
Astronomy & Cosmic Physics at the University of Heidelberg

International PhD program 2009 in Astronomy and Astrophysics

The IMPRS for Astronomy and Cosmic Physics offers several fellowships for a three-year doctoral program starting fall 2008. Our school is located in Heidelberg (Germany), one of the most beautiful old university towns in Europe.

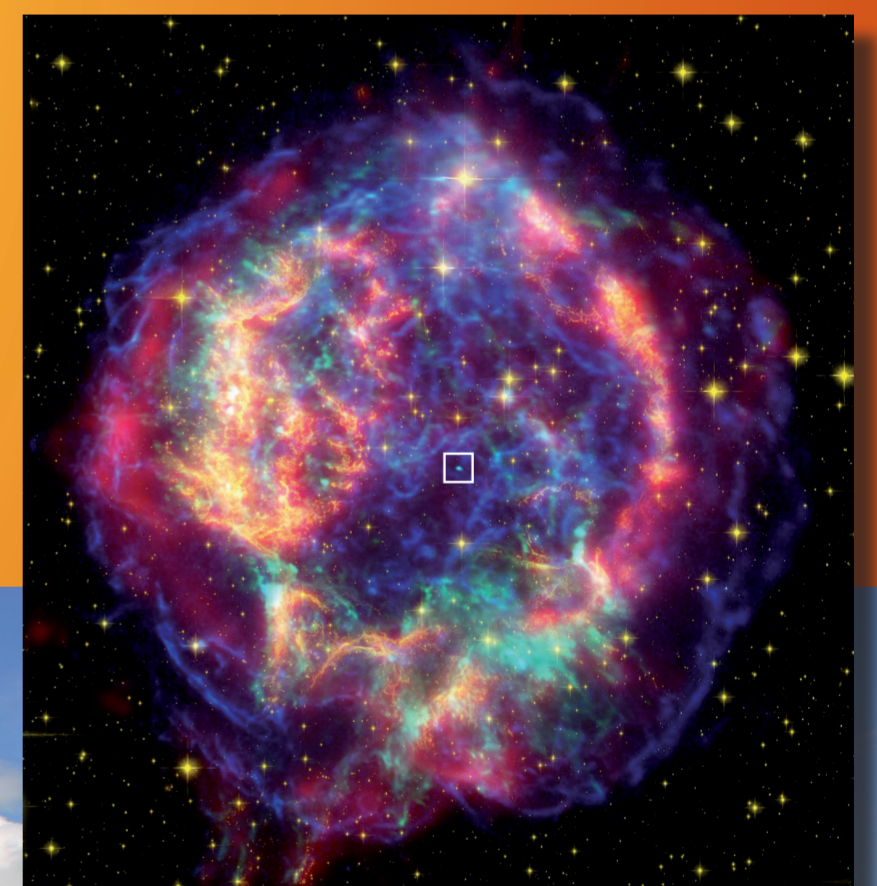

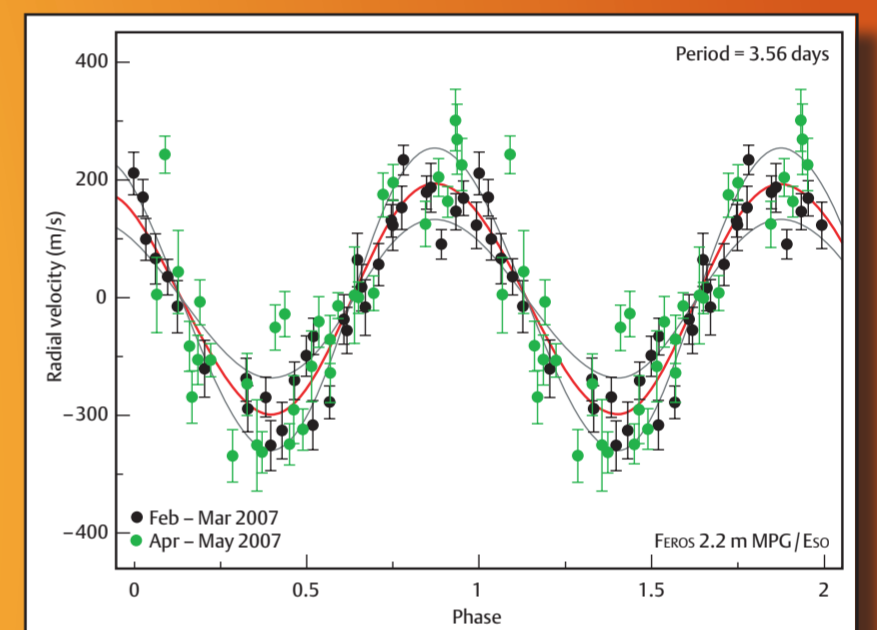

We provide excellent research and training facilities on a wide range of up-to-date research topics in order to prepare for a successful career in astronomy, astrophysics or space science.

IMPRS Heidelberg is operated by five institutes of the Max Planck Society and the Zentrum für Astronomie der Universität Heidelberg:

- Max Planck Institute for Astronomy
- Max Planck Institute for Nuclear Physics
- Astronomisches Rechen-Institut
- Institute of Theoretical Astrophysics
- Landessternwarte Königstuhl

IMPRS Heidelberg is an independent part of the Heidelberg Graduate School for Fundamental Physics (www.fundamental-physics.uni-hd.de).

We invite highly qualified national and international students to apply.

Application deadline: December 13, 2008
